

Operation Ivy "Someday"

Visit "Someday" on MotoLyrics.com

Sometimes I unwind
Look back to the passing of time
Sometimes I feel
Those days become unreal
Our lives are fashioned by things that come from outside
Control so indirect we don't even realize
Someday my instincts will be things I can trust Someday too much conditioning could make me self destruct

Someday I'll fall back on values I've created in time
Someday I'll have the chance to take back what's mine
Sometimes I say
It's just gonna be that way
Sometimes I hear
My own words come out unclear
