I need a hundred feet of razor wire
And a can of gasoline
I think it's time that we make a fire
Like the world has never seen
And I'll tell ya

No one's ever gonna stop us
No one here is gonna tell us
Nothing's ever gonna break us
They can't take that away from me

Cause nobody loves me like you
And nobody does me like you do
If they try to take you away
Rest assure
I will make 'em pay

And we watched them carve their names
In walls made of clay
Coffins In our wake
While the world goes up in flames

And I'll tell ya
No one's ever gonna stop us
No one here is gonna tell us
Nothing's ever gonna break us
They can't take that.

Cause nobody loves me like you
Nobody does me like you do
If they try to take you away
Rest assured
I will make 'em pay
We'll make 'em pay

Cause nobody loves me like you
Nobody does me like you do
If they try to take you away
Rest assured
I will make 'em pay
