Lately it feels like there's no time to stop
And just break away, enjoy the day we're in It's not like we're fighting, just nobody's listening
We're talking in circles, I don't wanna talk anymore

I just wanna love you, love you, love you tonight
Baby hold me and tell me it's gonna be alright
Cause I miss you like crazy and I need to believe
I can love you, love you, love you, love you back to me

You're still the one who can still take my breath away
When you look into my eyes
But these days it feels like you're looking right through me
Let's change that right now, come lay down with me

I just wanna love you, love you, love you tonight
Baby hold me and tell me it's gonna be alright
Cause I miss you like crazy and I need to believe
I can love you, love you, love you, love you back to me

Cause I miss you like crazy and I need to believe
I can love you
I can love you, love you, love you, love you
I can love you baby
I can love you, love you, love you, love you back to me
