I can feel your breath on my lips
You're holding my hand so tight
We've never been closer than this
We've never been up so high
Oh what a way
To end a perfect day
Tonight, tonight, tonight

It's kinda feeling like
We're flyin' through the clouds
Round the moon
Like a satellite
So far removed
From the room
That it's almost like
Tonight the world is ours
And we're looking down on the stars

It's the most beautiful view
There's not another soul in sight
Even in this crowded room
We're in our own universe
Tonight, tonight, tonight

You got me feeling like
We're flyin' through the clouds
Round the moon
Like a satellite
So far removed
From the room
That it's almost like
Tonight the world is ours
We're looking down on the stars

And together we can see
All the lights down below
Like a million fireflies
Burning out of control
Looking at the sky
And wishing they were us
Looking down on the stars

You got me feeling like
We're flyin' through the clouds
Round the moon
Like a satellite
So far removed
From the room
That it's almost like

And together we can see
All the lights down below
Looking at the sky
Looking down
