I was down to the mast, the last of the pieces
Of a ship swallowed up by the sea
I was clinging to life, night after night
I thought no one was coming for me

I was a slow rainy Monday
A grey lonely subway
A one bedroom too small to share
A life so diluted
A heart so polluted
Waiting for someone to care

But now it's all fallen into place
It's all coming together
We never lost faith
Never said never
Now everything we've been waiting for
Is finally here
This could be our year

Baby, this could be our year

All this talk about timing
And planets aligning
Is starting to make sense to me

And though I can't quite explain it
Other than saying
We're right where we're both meant to be

Cause now it's all fallen into place
It's all coming together
We never lost faith
We never said never
Now everything we've been waiting for
Is finally here
This could be our
Moment in the sun
Our chance to make it
You only get one
So we gotta take it

Now everything we've been waiting for
Is finally here
This could be our year

This could be our
Moment in the sun
Our chance to make it
You only get one
So we gotta take it
Now everything we've been praying for
Is finally here
This could be our year
Oh whoa
This could be the one
We've been waiting, waiting, waiting for
