Last night I dreamed
That you were sailing out to sea
There was nothing I could do
But watch you float away from me
I woke up thinking that maybe this could mean we're drifting apart
I promised myself that I would never let it get that far

So I'm gonna strike first
Gonna hit hard
Too much to lose
I gotta give this everything I got
Think I can count on going to war
Cause your love is worth fighting for

Why I do always let us bend till we almost break Ooh, and the truth is, losing you is a chance I just can't take

So I'm gonna strike first
Gonna hit hard
Too much to lose
I gotta give this everything I got
Think I can count on going to war
Cause your love is worth fighting for

I am a thousand soldiers
I am the fear left from war
When it comes to us and saving our love
There's nothing I won't do

So I'm gonna strike first
Gonna hit hard
Too much to lose
I gotta give this everything I got
Think I can count on going to war
Nothing's gonna come between us anymore
Cause your love is worth fighting for Ooh, is worth fighting for
