Heartbeats slow with atrophy,
Your dreams lost in apathy.
Stalled out, you can barely breathe,
Don't try to hide your feelings.
So close yet miles away from me,
One taste is all I really need.
I tried to give you everything it takes, I hope we make it.

Girl, don't be afraid, there's nothing we won't do,
Your fears will fade, I'll kill 'em all for you.
And even if the world comes down on you,
Don't be afraid, we'll make it through,
'Cause I'll burn it down for you!

I keep holding on for you,
There's only so much I can do.
I wish I could be your Superman,
Your only hero.

Girl, don't be afraid, there's nothing we won't do,
Your fears will fade, I'll kill 'em all for you.
And even if the world comes down on you,
Don't be afraid, we'll make it through,
'Cause I'll burn it down!

I keep holding on for you,
There's only so much I can do,
I wish you could see.

Girl, don't be afraid, there's nothing we can't do,
Your fears will fade, I'll kill 'em all for you.
And even if the world comes down on you,
Don't be afraid, we'll make it through,
'Cause I'll burn it down for you!
I'll burn it down for you!
Yeah, that's right!
I'll burn it down!
I'll burn it down for you!
