Breaker-breaker one nine, can you hear me?
Over and out, going clearly
Clearly I'm losing my mind
Losing my mind, losing my mind
[x2]

What up to my audience?
Been holding on line, not folding like accordions
We going back to the future like riding in Deloreans
Not Crown Victorians, life starts and the story ends
Skies gray like Dorian till voices started joining 'em
Now it ain't in vain so let the award tour begin And New York is here since I started going in Got the juice Tampico, Puerto Rican girls used to go and call me Rico
This music sh*t to me is like Lou Reed to Nico
I feel like Razor Ramon, what up chico?
Throwing toothpicks at the amateurs, the said characters
Who tried to get the picture but couldn't get the aperture
The shutter speed or the right light,
Now you in the dark like a night light
F*ck being like Mike, be like Outasight
And grow a set and here come the hook 'cause this sh*t ain't over yet
Here come the hook 'cause this sh*t ain't over yet

Breaker-breaker one nine, can you hear me?
Over and out, going clearly
Clearly I'm losing my mind
Losing my mind, losing my mind
[x2]

Losing my mind

Another bar getting thrown out, speaking man to man
I just wanna chill and zone out
If you don't know jack, homie, don't pull your phone out
And I can drop dimes but I ain't got much to loan out Every weekend getting blown out

15 years old with a North Face and a blow out 19 selling 20's trying to pull the dough out 25 and signed, now the light don't go out, Outasight ain't out of light
But he's sure out his mind but he ain't out of time Grooving, chilling, rooting for the villain, Downtown dwelling
Boy, his ego swelling like he got knocked in his head Downing Johnny Walker red, every one of our parents said stay in school
Some of us did, some of us didn't, some of us cared
Some of us lived, some of us dead, some of us broke, some of us rich
None of us should ever live in the fear of speaking clear
So grow a set and here come the hook 'cause this sh*t ain't over yet
Yo, here come the hook, I ain't kidding man

Breaker-breaker one nine, can you hear me?
Over and out, going clearly
Clearly I'm losing my mind
Losing my mind, losing my mind
[x2]
