I know
sometimes I lie to get me out of trouble It comes back when I think it's all over I need my luck just like a four leaf clover
So when I
I try to say You're not alone, you're in trouble
It comes back when I think it's all over
I need my luck just like a four leaf clover

So what are we to do when everybody's got a soft spot for liquer and accessories
If there's a place you wanna go Just take me there
when no-one knows
cos sings are no use for me.
How can you try and understand if you don't even understand that no-one ever understands it hey So take your plan
and take your hand
and claim your land cos everybody's got a new place to be ooohhh i never (x3)

leave them behind, leave them behind hey hey hey That's what I say to keep a smile on my face It's just a phase that helps me get better Like at the times when you wanted to cry oh obedient you try and there's no point in lying

It's just a phase that helps me get better Like at the times that you wanted to cry

So what are we to do

for liquer and accessories
If there's a place you wanna go Just take me there
when no-one knows
cos sings are no use for me.
How can you try and understand
that no-one ever understands it hey
So take your plan
and take your hand
and claim your land

leave them behind, leave them behind.
