"Baby Girl"

INTRO:
Oooo
BabyGirl

VERSE: Everytime I look into
your eyes,
it alway's makes me realise
for all those times
that me and you
had soo many fights.
Walking all alone,
going home,
I hear someone calling me
on my phone,
I realised
that it was my babygirl.
Calling you on your mobile phone,
-no answer-
tried your house telephone.
Noone was even picking up the phone.
Then decided to call your brother,
-no answer-
not even your sister.
I was running around,
everywhere,
in this
rainy weather.

CHORUS: (4x)
Walking all alone,
going home,
I hear someone calling me
on my phone,
I realised
that it was my babygirl.
