Verse 1:

Girl I was worried sick,
Acting like your all this,
Creatin' a Facebook FanPage and diss,
Baby, I never thought you'd act like this,
& I was saying "here baby please take this",
I got you soo much things and your chatting sh*t,
Your actin' soo weird with your mates-iss,
li was heartbroken into million sh*t,
And all you gave me is fake-lovish.
Come one baby don't you go away from me,
Remember the day where we used to talk on the phone
like 3?
I want these lies disappearin' away,
Come on baby girl don't you go away?
I need you in my life like crazy,
Baby I'm crazy in love with you like madly,
I never wanna loose you ever again,
Come on baby, show me your love like ten.

Chorus: (2x)

Everytime I look into your eyes,
I catch them beautiful lies,
Babygirl, I never wanna lie, never die lie,
Buh your eyes are the message of these beautiful lies.

Verse 2:

Soo many tears blastin away,
I need to find my girl and I need to pray.
Girl, you mean a lot to me,
No I can't take you out ma' mind like 3,
Girl, I can see them body goin' flee.
I don't wanna see your body going down,
As I will die here on da ground.
Ur Body is fitter,
Ur body is nicer,
Ur body has these beautiful lies (never),
I need you in my life like crazy,
Baby, I'm crazy in love with you like madly,
I never wanna lose you ever again,
Come on baby- show me your love like ten,

Beautiful lies keepin comin' thru your mouth,
You need to shut that mouth,
And carry on with your life. (Beautiful lies)

Chorus: (2x)

Everytime I look into your eyes,
I catch them beautiful lies,
Babygirl, I never wanna lie, never die lie,
Buh your eyes are the message of these beautiful lies.

Verse 3:

Baby, I was starin at your eyes,
Realisin' these beautiful lies,
That's comin thru ur eyes,
Baby, I was thinkin about you everytime,
Hopin' you realise these beautiful lies,
I was lookin at the sky,
Prayin to god, hope you realise,
That I loved you soo,
Come on baby, please stop these lies,
And carry on with your life,
Da skies are blessin my eyes.
Come on baby don't you go away from me!
Remember the day where we used to talk on the phone
like 3?
I want these lies disappearin' away,
Come on baby don't you go away,
I need you in my life like crazy,
Baby I'm crazy in love with you like madly,
I never wanna lose you ever again,
Come on baby show me your love like ten.

Chorus: (2x)

Everytime I look into your eyes,
I catch them beautiful lies,
Babygirl, I never wanna lie, never die lie,
Buh your eyes are the message of these beautiful lies.
