verse 1:

deserted again
you speak to me through the shadow walking in closed rooms
using cold words
captured by the night
this journey escapes from my embrace

verse 2:

strange silhouettes
whisper your thoughts,
scream your sadness
and they all turn away
unable to face

more of this death

verse 3:

credence in my word
written in dust, tainted by memories
i confess my hope
recognize my loneliness

verse 4:

your laughter weeps the truth
confirming the epitaph
of my soul
and displaying
the once unknown...

...Karma.
