Too many promises, so many lies
I've had regrets but I can't turn back the time
I'm gonna make a change, start a new
Gonna take a chance and it's all because of you
Got me feelin' like never before
And with you I feel so secure
So I wanna say
What I lost I have found
Now I've got to let you know that
You take me up where I belong
It's your love that's makin' me strong
Whenever I fall, your lovin' it takes me
Up where I belong
You came to me when I needed you most
Gave me direction
You've given me so much hope
An inspiration, the light you shine
I'm in heaven just to know that you are mine
Such a feelin' like never before
And with you I feel so secure
So I wanna say
That I owe it all to you
Got to tell you from the heart that
You take me up where I belong
It's your love that's makin' me strong
Whenever I fall, your lovin' it takes me
Up where I belong
You take me up where I belong
It's your love that's makin' me strong
Whenever I fall, your lovin' it takes me
Up where I belong
Gotta love that's strong enough
Takes me higher than the heavens above
It feels like a dream
But I know it's true, up where I belong
