I guess I'll never understand the opposite sex
I guess it's true some women are really complex
I guess your infatuation didn't last long
I guess telling you I (blank) ed you was somehow wrong.

You were good
I never seen it coming
The more I pushed
The more you kept running

I guess I'm just not worth another breath
For you to tell me what went wrong
I guess I had to find out for myself
Just who is weak and who is strong.
I guess I'm just not worth another breath
For you to tell me what went wrong
I guess I had to find out for myself
Just who is weak and who is strong.

I guess I'll never understand a woman's mind
I guess it's true some change all the time
I guess your intuition rules you all
I guess showing you my feelings made me small.

You were good
I never seen it coming
The more I pushed
The more you kept running

I guess I'm just not worth another breath
For you to tell me what went wrong
I guess I had to find out for myself
Just who is weak and who is strong.
I guess I'm just not worth another breath
For you to tell me what went wrong
I guess I had to find out for myself
Just who is weak and who is strong.

You wouldn't even return my calls
Like I done something wrong
Your choice became my biggest fear

Now I wish your memory would just disappear.

You were good
I never seen it coming
The more I pushed
The more you kept running

I guess I'm just not worth another breath
For you to tell me what went wrong
I guess I had to find out for myself
Just who is weak and who is strong.
I guess I'm just not worth another breath
For you to tell me what went wrong
I guess I had to find out for myself
Just who is weak and who is strong.
