You think all it takes is a kiss on my cheek and I'm yours

I guess appealing to my inner man you'll ignore You're not the first girl I've met who comes in like the wind

You come on strong, leave then start again
You start all over again.

I didn't think I'd wind up in second place
Or that you'd leave me without a trace

I watched it happen again

I watched it happen again.

I thought all it took was a little spontaneity and you'd melt

I guess telling you I (blank) ed you didn't help

Your agenda was not to get that close

I messed that up when I let my feelings show

I let my feelings show.

It's not the first time that I've made that mistake

But when you're single those are the risks that you take

I let it happen again

I let it happen again.

For me it takes more to sustain a relationship than lust

I guess thinking I could change you was a bust

It seems to always end up this way

They get all steamy then it all gets strange

Then it all gets strange.

It's the first time that I've played that game

But you'll be the last woman who'll put me through a change

It won't happen again

It won't happen again.
