Let's start,
over and over again
You can learn to hate so me much more

Don't stop
feeding the facts, you, Let's get you can always stir it from the core

I can't believe that
I'm doing the same thing again
Living the same lie
and knowing that there is no end
My hopes, my fears, my dreams
all go away

I'd live for tomorrow if I could just get through today...

This is finally falling away
I can always dream of another day
One more, taste and I'll set you free Though when you walk away you'll come back to me

I can't believe that
I'm doing the same thing again
Living the same lie
and knowing that there is no end
My hopes, my fears, my dreams
all go away

I'd live for tomorrow if I could just get through today...

I want to build you up just to break you

Come forget the wait, you..

and all the promises to you Mean some much more
I sometimes wish the death to...(you)

I cant believe that im doing the same thing again(i cant believe it!) (i cant believe it!)
Living the same lie
and knowing that there is no end(there is no way!) (there is no way!)
My hopes my fears my dreams

I'd live for tomorrow if I could just get through today...
(if i could just get through today!)
