Dreams drown my mind,
For my moment in time,
Experiment with all of my life

'Cause the three white gods are coming to stamp my time,
Don't let your faith go,
Don't let your fear show.

It's not my time to die,
It's not the time to ask the constant question..
Why...?
When will the chart
stop asking why...?
Innocence has no regrets.
Why?
The constant question of my life is,
Why?

I won't let my faith go,
I won't let my fear show,
It's not my time to die,
It's not the time to ask the constant question,
Why?

Money or Poor,
Peace or War,
Joy or Pain,
Memory or None,
Smile or Cry,
Death, Life, (life)

Why?
When will the chart stop asking?
Why?
Innocence has no regrets,
Why?
The constant question of my life is why...?
