Here and now I want you to see
Everybody wants to be free
Open beach now, swim to the sea
Open up your heart to me

Come and go like love and rock stars
Shed your skin like saints with deep scars
Pass your time at night in cheap bars
Open up your heart and see

Everybody wants you to come around
To come around
To come around and

Everybody wants you to come around
To come around
To come around and

Sing all!

All the times I say it would pass
Never does I want it to last
All the times I said I would die, never have I wanted to last
Come and go like love and rock stars, shed your skin like saints with deep scars
Pass your time at night in cheap bars
Open up your heart and see
Open up your heart and see

But I know I can't go home, I know that beast too
And I see the truth to be what beckons me

Everybody wants you to come around
To come around
To come around and
Everybody wants you to come around
To come around
To come around and

Sing all!

Sing all!

Open up your heart and see
But I know I can't go home (open up your heart and see) I know that beast too
And I see (open up your heart and see) the truth to be what beckons me

Here and now I want you to see
Everybody wants to be free
Open beach now, swim to the sea
Open up your heart to me

Come and go like love and rock stars
Shed your skin like saints with deep scars
Pass your time at night in cheap bars
Open up your heart and see

Everybody wants you to come around
To come around
To come around and

Everybody wants you to come around
To come around
To come around and
