Be great, and no mistakes,
Be brave, and show no fear around me.
I believe in my eyes and something just fell from the sky.
Be great, but know the strength,
Be brave and show your teeth with your peace.

'Cause one of these days they will destroy this whole fucking town.

I don't know what will happen next, but I'll wait for you.
Things are only half as good since those days
Wish I know in every likelihood I'm insatiable.
Guess I'll only know myself again.

No mistakes, no mistakes, you must be supremely unleashed.
Supremely unleashed.

I don't know what will happen next, but I'll wait for you.
Guess I always told myself that I could.
Know it's only right and good to go straight to you
I'll always be a few away chairs to chat.

That's right, you caught me untravel
Ease of the night stop me, stop me,
Ease away, everybody is on anyone else.
Ease from inside, to stuck in everybody.

That's right, that's right.

I don't know what will happen next, but I'll wait for you.
Things are only half as good since those days
Knowing every likelihood I'm insatiable.
So I'll always be a few pay checks to chance.

I don't know what will happen next, but I'll wait for you.
