Waiting, Desiring
I have walked right into a trap
Disillusioned, Conspiring
I can do much better than
Wait a minute, What is in it?
Will it give me a heart attack?
I'm losing all my marbles and
I can't seem to put them back

So I run I run, run, run, run run

I am melting, I'm perspiring
Has my focus been at a loss
Had a hard enough time
Trying to turn my head off
Have I lost it? Am I failing?
I'm sure it's all my fault
At least I know that I'm the one responsible
It is not your fault

Should I run?
Run Run Run Run Run

I don't care but you remind me of me
A mirror reflection, an image reflector
It could never be

You can stay with me until fall has come and
All my money's gone

Waiting, Desiring
I have walked right into a trap
Disillusioned, Conspiring
I can do much better than
Wait a minute, What is in it?
Will it give me a heart attack?
I'm losing all my marbles and
I can't seem to put them back

So I run I run, run, run, run run
