Here's one for the diamonds in the dark
(California Daze)
And all the people in the park
(Never feels the same)
...
(it's the darkest gloom)
And all the feather feeling blue
Ooooooh, she tastes like sunlight
And she's always gonna be there, in the back of your mind
Oooooooh, It's the time to rewind
Where you born to live, or born to die
Forget and forgive, there's a place you can live
Go and watch the pretty girl in town
(California daze)
When you're feeling kind of down
(Never feels the same)
Lean back through the California Daze
(It's the darkest gloom)
It's always been the fastest way
Ooooooh, she tastes like sunlight
And she's always gonna be there, in the back of your
mind
Oooooooh, It's the time to rewind
Where you born to live, or born to die
Forget and forgive, there's a place you can live
Ooooooh, she tastes like sunlight
And she's always gonna be there, in the back of your
mind
Oooooooh, It's the time to rewind
Where you born to live, or born to die
(solo)
Forget and forgive, there's a place you can live
