Yesterday I woke up, on the wrong side of your bed
I kept my eyes shut, but I saw you in my bed Time isn't frozen, it's melted in the sun
You're like a poison, you linger in my lungs

People tell me things about you, like you're toxic, it's no good
I'd never wanna break that daze, so cut loose and blow away

All I gotta do, all I gotta do is forget you

Take it or leave it We're all gonna hurt our friends
Want it or need it
Some good things never end

People tell me things about you, like you're toxic, it's no
good
I'd never wanna break that daze, so cut loose and blow

All I gotta do, all I gotta do is forget you

I wanna blow away and sleep until we're dead Stop trying to fill the heart shaped hole left in your chest
I wanna hesitate, run away and celebrate
All around the world, people seem to've heard
