"Baby, What's Wrong?"

Baby, what's wrong?
Why do we feel so down?
I'm getting lost
Following you town to town

And as my heart
Dissolves to my bones,
I'll wait for you
To come on back home.

Baby, what's wrong?
And tell me, when did things change?
Sometimes, I need you
Sometimes I just need to get away

But now my mind
Ä°s clouded with fear
Until the moment
That you're standing here.

Baby, what's wrong?
And tell me, why did things change?
Now that I need you,
Baby, you're far away

And so my soul
Ä°s trying to find
Some place I know
And just some piece of mind.
