Here comes the tickle train next stop is where you lay cuz I love to see your smiling face even if it's only for the next four days Well, baby-baby, I can't call you baby cuz you believe in Jesus and I believe in may be's like- may be you'll see that you might like to be out of the harbor and sailing the sea so here comes the tickle train now (chug-uh's), It could take you to a destination far beyond expectation if you'd like to see just pull back the curtain and take a moment to breathe, because I loved it when you picked me up, ran across the highway and dropped me in the mud I wiped my shoes on your jeans so when you finally washed them you had to think of me, Well
here comes the tickle train now (chug-uh's), I hope when this song reaches your ears you won't be offended or think I'm weird it's just a simple homage to the short time we had even if it's corny, I know it made you laugh here comes the tickle train now (chug-uh's),
