I know my ways are unorthodox, but honey I got too much love to be settling down or waiting for the one I'm twenty-one and I like to rush in cause darling that's the fun of it so four times a year, let's fall in love We'll have a Time-Share Romance when we're in the same town
a Time-Share Romance
cuz I can't settle down
and it's all understood- we'll leave out all the fighting and get down to the goods Now I could love a philosopher, comedian, photographer,
an artist or musician, or a man good in the kitchen, but it seems to me it ends the same-every time we're afraid to change but if we know it's coming, it might ease the pain We'll have a Time-Share Romance
a Time-Share Romance
and it's all understood- we'll leave out all the
But the truth is I always seem to find myself alone with only the comfort of numbers filling up my phone Well there must be a man who is all of these things, but once I find him I'll have to give up all my flings! (Forget it!)
We'll have a Time-Share Romance
a Time-Share Romance
and it's all understood- we'll leave out all the
