RED CODE

Baby I got lost in time
I have no more strength to fight
We should learn to live apart
Cause the feelings are already out
Have no chance to change your life
You are immortal in your rightness

Get over all that you love
Is it your resolve?
Come down and crush all around you
Declaring a red code
Get over all that you love
Is it your resolve?
Don't come to me, we are free
Do just what you need

Time flies, you don't catch up
But the past mistakes haunt
We should learn to live apart
Cause the feelings are already out
You can only put it up
But you are immortal in your rightness

Get over all that you love
Is it your resolve?
Come down and crush all around you
Declaring a red code
Get over all that you love
Is it your resolve?
Don't come to me, we are free
Do just what you need

Get over all that you love
Is it your resolve?
Come down and crush all around you
Declaring a red code
You gonna reset the time
And reset the space
Gonna be dead to the world
Oh, what a waste

You gonna reset the time
And reset the space
Die for me
