"I Wait For Him"

Visit "I Wait For Him" on MotoLyrics.com

The other side of the Hall of Dreams
Within the corridor of Castle Keep
Beyond the hills of Avalon
Where once anointed our vows were taken

I wait for him, I wait for him, I wait for him

In dreams I see our other lives
We are shaman to a thousand tribes
We share a bond that knows no bounds
And stand as one on equal ground

I wait for him, I wait for him, I wait for him

On the Isle of Crete at Temple's gate
Where fair Athena has us wait
In a field of poppies and old olive trees
We looked to the sun and fell to our knees

I read the stars, I hear him in the wind
When the wars are over, he'll return again, return again

I wait for him, I wait for him, I wait for him
