We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

Here we go, no we can't see the light
And we don't know when, and we don't know why
Seems time might be running out
But we're not going down without Without a Fight!

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

Give me something, I can hold onto
In the darkest hour I ever knew
Take my hand we'll see this through
If this ships going down then that's our cure to FIGHT!

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

Oh, Oh, Oh
Oh, Oh, Oh
Oh, Oh,

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against

We will rise against
Even though we don't know where we should begin
Even though we can't see around the bend
Oh, we know that we will rise against
