Sound it off, I can't get your attention anymore
You can't get my attention anymore
Cuz nothing's like it ever was before
Turn it off, I'm only in slow motion when I dream
And I can see you breathe in slowly
This is just the worst reality

So you can go and say what you were gonna say
It's never gonna matter anyway
So we can let the ghost of you and I fly away
So we can let the ghost of you and I fly away

Let it go, there's no use in calling anymore
Cuz I can't even answer anymore
And you're so sick of trying anymore
Hold your breath, until you know we've made it past the line
It's over and you know we're still behind
Before you even know it we'll be fine

So you can go and say what you were gonna say
It's never gonna matter anyway
So we can let the ghost of you and I fly away
So we can let the ghost of you and I fly away
Let's fly away, away, away, away
Let's fly away, away, away, away

Maybe there's no place for us to go
But if I'm still fighting, still breathing, I could let you go

So you can go and say what you were gonna say
It's never gonna matter anyway
So we can let the ghost of you and I fly away
So we can let the ghost of you and I fly away
Let's fly away, away, away, away
Let's fly away, away, away, away
