You're so confusing
So stop pretending
I'm not your baby
It's not the ending
[X2]Â
Â
Tell me once, tell me twice
Tell me three times or four, I don't care anymore
About this, what you do explore, I don't care anymore
Without this, At least I am sure I will never be bored regardless
Look alive, run your mouth
Words are up to your knees and you start to freeze
It's boring the hell out of me and you cannot see Your stories, aren't quite what they seem
Maybe it was a dream of glory
(Of glory)

You beg, You plead, please
Come back to us
We're shaking up the floor now
Are you hearing what I said
You beg, You plead, jealousy
Come back to us
We're shaking up the floor now
I don't remember what I said so here we go now
Oh whoa oh whoa oh whoa oh whoa
Breathe it in, spit it out
My point is worthless to you, am I getting through
I repeat, I'm worthless to you, yet you stay in my view

And backseat, I love what you do, but you're overdue,
I'm complete

Turn around, drop your arms, let's go
Take a step, take 'em out, let's go
All is well, shut it up, let it go
Â
You beg, You plead, please
Come back to us
We're shaking up the floor now

Are you hearing what I said
You beg, You plead, jealousy
Come back to us
We're shaking up the floor now
I don't remember what I said so here we go now
Oh whoa oh whoa oh whoa oh whoa
You're so confusing
