All I want is for us to run away
Listen to me it's the sound of the waves
We come together and others are left behind
The background fades and we'll have to decide

Electrical love
The body remembers so much the mind can not
We're getting closer and others are left in town
You touch my hand and I roll the window down

We're living the dream
We're living the dream
We're living the dream
We're living the dream

Down from the hills and under the stars
We roll from the coast to the capital
I never dreamed we'd make it this far
We're running for our lives

Down from the hills and under the stars
We roll from the coast to the capital

Oh man it's just a window in time
It's a dream dreamt and forgotten
We're almost there but so is the end
Now you're my only friend
Now you're my only friend

Down from the hills and under the stars
We roll from the coast to the capital
I never dreamed we'd make it this far
We're running for our lives
