Channel one
Or two
Let's try three
Maybe even four, five, six
Where everyone is no one
And vice-versa

But baby, baby, baby, baby
I come from the other side of this wide sea
To tell you that you think you're at the top
But the box that talks will fuck up !

Good evening everyone and welcome on our brand new show The Box That Talks.
Your Sunday night freak show on the Play Off channel

Connect the cortex to the set Reset the minds that you can get
Two ads, three shows and four seconds later
Inject the venom into the heads

Baby, baby, baby, baby
I come from the other side of this wide sea
To tell you that you think you're at the top
But the box that talks will fuck up !

Now our first guest tonight is a young man from Belgium who thinks and acts like a penguin. Can I get a round of applause for Oliver

Don't you listen to the box that talks
Don't you look at the box that talks
Don't you talk to the box that talks
Get rid of your big screen
Exchange virtual dreams for something real
Last chance to get up or

The box that talks will fuck you up !

Our next guest has a very special condition that causes him to soil himself when he hears his own name, let's welcome James

All lights are green to turn on the screen
Unleash the fake love and the fake fiend
Two ads, three shows and four seconds later
All wanna be friend with the lies machine

Baby, baby, baby, baby
I come from the other side of this wide sea
To tell you that you think you're at the top
But the box that talks will fuck up !

Our last guest is a German teacher who burns his pupils with sulfuric acid when they get a bad grade, let's welcome Pr Mengele

Don't you listen to the box that talks
Don't you look at the box that talks
Don't you talk to the box that talks
Get rid of your big screen
Exchange virtual dreams for something real
Last chance to get up or!
