Listen to me now
Won't you take every word in
I'm saying this out loud
You don't have to pretend
It only took a couple minutes just to figure it out
We can do anything if we live life without a doubt, yeah

Some people hope to find something extraordinary in Turning one page at a time
Only one way to begin
It looks like we all have a part to play in this game, oh
You can force the piece to fit but the puzzle is not the same, oh the same

So we're gonna sing it now
Until the very last light goes out
And then we're gonna close our mouths and listen to hear, listen to hear ourselves
Echo off the sky tonight
This is what life could be like

La da da da da

Don't feel sorry if you don't play the melody just right
Just promise me you'll try and try it again
It'll be alright

Sometimes I think that I might run out of air or lose my breath, oh yeah
It's better than store'n up these thoughts all in side my head, yeah yeah

We're gonna sing it now
Until the very last light goes out
And then we're gonna close our mouths and listen to
hear, listen to hear ourselves
Echo off the sky tonight
This is what life could be like

I find the world's in his fingers
Wont let me fall, wont let me fall
Yeah, he is here he is speaking

You're at fault
'Cause he paid it all

So we're gonna sing it now
Close our mouths and listen to hear ourselves

Sing it now until the very last light goes out And then close our mouths and listen to hear, listen to hear ourselves
Echo off the sky, oh tonight, yeah
This is what life could be like

This is what life could be like
