Forget what I said and why I said it
I don't think you ever wanted to know
You'd wanna make an excuse on your own
You rather decide who you could blame it on

I get the picture you like to deceive
Whatever you can so you can get your piece
I'll live and die but I will never believe
I stayed so long and that I let my whole body bleed

What's fucking wrong with your head?
What's fucking wrong with your head?

I bet you swear you never did it
But I gotta tell you something while we're alone
Hide your lies but lies make burns
I've got a scar so now I've got a concern

You ain't a human, you're more like a disease
Some of the sickest shit I've ever seen
I'll live and die but I will never believe
I stayed so long and that I let my whole body bleed

What's fucking wrong with your head?
What's fucking wrong with your head?

Forget what I said and why I said it
I don't think you ever wanted to know
You'd wanna make an excuse on your own
You rather decide who you could blame it on

I get the picture you like to deceive
Whatever you can so you can get your piece
I'll live and die but I will never believe
I stayed so long and that I let my whole body bleed

What's fucking wrong with your head?
(You've got it on too tight, too tight)
What's fucking wrong with your head?
(You've got it on too tight, too tight)

What's fucking wrong with your head?

(You've got it on too tight, too tight)
What's fucking wrong with your head?
(You've got it on too tight, too tight)
