

Porcelain Raft "Backwards"

Before you choose the right words, before you even start to explain
That was the last thing to do Tap dancing on the top-roof, hanging pictures on the wall
I've got something here for you

Maybe I've never mentioned to you, it wasn't hard to run away from home That's at least what I've shown to you

I hope you are in a nice hotel, playing cards in your room
With someone who cares over you

And I'm glad you wanted to make it clear You didn't mean to hurt anyone I'm sure No you didn't mean to hurt anyone I'm sure

Calling everybody that I loved the most Telling secrets no one had to know
It wasn't me that stole some from you

I read the news about someone that could only talk backwards
Strange enough I thought about you
