Once upon a time
It was all so clear in your mind
Had a light so bright in your eyes
But a young man's dream became an old
man's curse

He's mad at the world screaming I don't care
I know you long time like 28 years
We lived like brothers even traded off gear
Even tatted "One Love" on our arms and stayed peers
Listening to Bob when losing hope
We crashed house parties, skip school to smoke
I was jealous of the girl you had, bagged and dumped
Like not a single girl u ever had would last a month
We used to hang around fairplay's the arcade spot
Fairways money split never changed us Played ball on the yard neighbours spying from the drapes
On the same bus every morning line 38
Wilding on the corner, free styling to a clap
My dad said happy boys saw us smiling on the steps
We were young philosophers dreams of living prosperous
Smallest crew in town we had the whole city watching us

Once upon a time
It was all so clear in your mind
Had a light so bright in your eyes
But a young man's dream became an old
man's curse
Why so mad at the world
There was so much that you wanted to do
Just be yourself you got nothing to loose
But a young man's dream, old man's curse
Why so mad at the world

We're from the days of old tape decks and vinyls
Posters on the walls of our Idols
Legends before the fame look non of that change

Just brought a whole new meaning to the game of survival
Got 20 years on us, raise your glass blow cheers for us
Laugh and reminisce about the time they didn't care for us
Still here, only difference be the beards on us
Life harder seems fun it disappeared on us
But we drive same road same ties
Same amount of babies have that similar strive Always willing to sacrifice but you do have a choice
The scars you don't see you will hear in your voice
Then he said he went suicidal cause his rival was afraid
He said he touched my woman, man let murder be the case
My daughter now hates me and I can't see my baby
Life got a brother all crazy

Once upon a time
It was all so clear in your mind
Had a light so bright in your eyes
But a young man's dream became an old man's curse
Why so mad at the world
Just be yourself you got nothing to lose
But a young man's dream became an old man's curse
Why so mad at the world

Emotionally caught up in the world he's in
This girl will have do time give his world a spin
Let me think about why let him suffer for his actions
He said he blacked out can't recall what has happened
All I heard was that he put his hands on her and he smacked her
Had her falling down the stairs said he couldn't catch her
She had his baby on her arms glad he wasn't harmed
But that's the reason he was in the bing and let her ring the alarm but That was then and this is now and I'm proud still Got ya back no matter what, up or downhill
It's why we're brothers and no matter what them others say
Just pray that day our loving God will look the other way

Once upon a time
It was all so clear in your mind
Had a light so bright in your eyes

But a young man's dream became an old
man's curse
Why so mad at the world
Just be yourself you got nothing to lose
But a young man's dream, old man's curse
Why so mad at the world
