Good looking out to this one, original
Guess who's coming this year
Postman loud and clear
Kid if you hating on a brother can you tell me what for
If you heading down South then imma stay up north
It's been too long the people need the remedy back
And so I only deal with crowds where the energy's at Homeboy is so incorporated but his dues ain't paid Want me to sign to the label dude your shoes ain't laced
Soon enough to hit the ground hard so let it be known
The next time he's in the building it's a funeral home
And I be glad to show you how we feel it now
Me nah the one "Postman" so watch me kill it now
Ain't stopping my roll bang out leave 'm stuck in a hole
Certified good music that be rocking your soul
Try to block my road imma pop your top off
You used to be a man of principles now he got soft
Now you just stay alerted to the fact that I'm here
Keep looking out to what's becoming my year, it's so original

Them say who that Man a tight true dat
Game man a rule dat
Plus we all knew dat, Right
Some say this man a fun yeh
Words a man's gunplay
Phoney haffi run weh, Right

They Know
I'm so damn original
They Know
Always been individual
They Know
Only coming to do things right
Let me do things right

Fire in a hole for all you murky cowards
Imma fire more words have 'm verbally showered
See folks turn strangers like they out of Towner's

I stick to my little cipher keep it real around us
Even, now I'm alone all is considered a go
Sweet sixteen your candy bars ain't hitting me though
I'm the remedy the game turned sick and lost sanity
By the time I'm done killing all of y'all is lost memory
Few did it good a few did it bad, listen Don't ever try to blame me for the shit you've been missing
Life ain't fair pre-pair for worst there's more coming
As soon as my bomb drops there's more panic than London
Have 'm jump out of buildings and speeding cars
We all get sick of clowns they just needed a star and I'm here
Throughout the years I refuse to slumber
Been in the studio laying frame for some new numbers

They Know
I'm so damn original
They Know
Always been individual
They Know
Only coming to do things right
Let me do things right

I'm known to get my shot when I need 'm
Knock till the doors creaking Nightmares but you not dreaming shocked when I'm not eating
I'm not an actor but I play role I'm not singing it stays soul
It's good to be back on the main road
Life is a lonesome passage can't hardly manage laughing
Can't trust nobody in my back all they did was stabbing
Lacking anything socially, more like used and owned
I've been attracting more lost souls than group homes

They Know
I'm so damn original
They Know
Always been individual
They Know
Only coming to do things right
Let me do things right
