I float away to a special place.
Beyond the stars, moon and space
In this place all I can I see
Two people like you and me

In this place everything's so right.
Nothin but love and we never fight
Nothin can bring us down
Cell, courts can't enter my town

Refrain:

This is the game I played.
Where I close my eyes and fade away

Chorus:

No rules to follow, no laws to break.
No bars to hold us or separate
No one can tell us we can't be together
Cos we are standing on the edge of forever
In my town

Wishing for you to be with me
Making things for you and me
In this place all I can feel
You're true to me and me to you

Everything's gonna be alright
Cos we're together side by side
Gainsaying is never true
Cos I just wanna be with you

Bridge:

But eventually the game must end.
My eyes must be open and reality sets in.
But someday soon - I'm not sure when.
I will close my eyes and play my game again

In my town
No more hiding
No more pain

In my town

No sadness
No more madness
In my town
