Excuse me for a moment homie, I'm sittin here thinkin 'bout my shawty, and how it seem like the one's you love the most always the first to go dawg, I just wish I could bring my shawty back for one more day,
and tell her how much I love her homie, this one's for you baby girl, I miss you;

I wish I could bring back shawty for just one day, so I could tell her all the things that I couldn't say, 'bout how I miss her and that I love her always, we could go to the beach dog and take it easy, or we could jump in the car and hit the freeway, trop the top and let our hair blow in the breezy, head to the crib and park in the driveway, and watch the stars till tomorrow is today, then hit the bed and sleep till mid-day, wake her up with a kiss and a bouquet, hold her tight and tell her everythings okay, even though it's not celebrate her birthday, take her to the hottest spot for the fillet, then out to her favorite club and let her DJ, then beg God for just one more day, cause he knows how much I miss my baby;

Please Dear Lord hear me when I pray, Wish I could bring my shawty back for one day, so I could tell her all the things that I didn't say, before you went and took my shawty away; (X2)

Girl when you first past I cried every day for years, I thought as time went on so would the tears, one thing I learned is this love is real, I'll rep ya name till I die girl, that's how I feel, I know one day that my heart will heal, but for right now dog the pain's unreal, baby everytime I go to church I kneel, and ask the Good Lord to help me deal, with the day to day, it's like a treadmill, it seem like everything is all downhill, shawty everything's been at a standstill, cause I'm waitin till my wish is fulfilled, I could have ya back girl if God willed, but he doesn't seem to noticed tears I've spilled, he just let's my heart go on unfilled, if I have to wait forever girl I will;

Please Dear Lord hear me when I pray,
Wish I could bring my shawty back for one day,
so I could tell her all the things that I didn't say,
before you went and took my shawty away; (X2)

I remember when we played in ya backyard, and you told me how you wanna be a lifeguard, I told ya you could do it, it aint that hard, and you studded everyday in the school yard, and all of a sudden my whole world was jarred, I remember the day my that heart was scarred, one moment my future was unmarred, next thing I know I'm standing in the graveyard, fussin and cussin at God like a retard, not realizing that heaven was your reward, but I still missed ya smile and ya spark, all the times we went to the park, and when we'd sneak out in the dark, underneath the tree where we left our mark, right next to the high school ballpark, our love was somethin right outta hallmark;

Please Dear Lord hear me when I pray,
Wish I could bring my shawty back for one day,
so I could tell her all the things that I didn't say,
before you went and took my shawty away; (X2)
