I'm sure that there's a reason why the stars made us collide
Cause it feels like the destination that I spent all this time trying to find

Ooh
Oooh you're all I need to know
And I can tell that you are the point of my life
Only you can make it worthwhile
Tell me what's the point of my life
Only you can make it alright

Everything happens for a reason
You and I, we are for life
Cause it feels like the explanation that I spent all my life trying to find

Oooh
Oooh you're all I need to know
And I can tell you are the point of my life
Only you can make it worthwhile
Tell me what's the point of my life
Only you can make it alright

Ooooooh
Oooh you're all I need to know
And I can tell you are the point of my life
Only you can make it worthwhile
Tell me what's the point of my life
Only you can make it alright
