Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, the sound of the burstin' beat "pa-pa-pa"

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, sound it out loud, Wo!

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, the sound of
the burstin' beat "pa-pa-pa"

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, sound it out
loud, Wo!

I'm not sure of anything, I don't know if the goal's over there or not

On the empty ground, the meaning of the wind awakening little by little, little by little, starts to feel good without any hesitation

In this incoherent world, twisters get together to look for fun

for fun

Blowing away the darkness, the twister passes through; it passes through everything, gaining power Blowing away the darkness, the twister awakens;
passing through common sense, with strength

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, the sound of the burstin' beat "pa-pa-pa"

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, sound it out
loud, Wo!

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, the sound of the burstin' beat "pa-pa-pa"

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, sound it out
loud, Wo!

Running through the tension, I open my eyes; the electricity buzzes, hey yo

I run, cutting through a world that I still can't see; burst,
"pa-pa-pa" in all of this

Blowing away the darkness, the twister passes
through; it passes through everything, gaining power

Blowing away the darkness, the twister awakens;
passing through common sense, with strength

Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, the sound of the burstin' beat "pa-pa-pa"
Awaken wind, everybody to these sounds, sound it out
loud, Wo!
