Where did my body go the night that my soul gave in fell from that high window into burning skies
fell from that high window into God's eyes

Answer me that question and you'll get the biggest kiss you have been waiting for for your whole life Answer me that question and you'll get the biggest smile
you have been waiting for since you were a child

Where did my spirit go the night that my soul gave in fell from that high stairwell into stranger's arms Where did my spirit go the night that my soul gave in fell from that high stairwell to sounds of alarms

Answer me that question and you'll get the biggest kiss
you have been waiting for for your whole life
you have been waiting for since you were a child since you were a child
since you were a child

When you were a child
did you think about things you thought in your lifetime you'd never see
When you were a child
did you think about monsters
When you were a child
did you think about things you thought in your mind would be only bad dreams nightmares... truth-dares

What is this emptiness so deep inside my chest Feels like its poisonous won't disappear Could this be history trying to cradle me If so her her lessons are ephemeral at best
