I walk along in these lonely streets
I walk along so I can feel my breath
Without distraction, without no relief said I
Walk here alone so I can feel myself

'Cause you were the needle inside my pillow
And you were the beetle inside my mouth
You were the laughing and you were the choking
You were the fun I should've done without
You were the fun I should've done without

Funny how light moves you oh so slowly
It's funny how time moves like butterflies
It tells you to hold on it tells you you're holy Tells you to love someone & to sacrifice

'Cause you were the needle inside my pillow
And you were the beetle inside my mouth
You were the laughing and you were the choking
You were the fun I should've done without
You were the fun I should've done without

I walk along in these lonely streets
I walk along so I can feel my breath
Without distraction, without no relief said I
Walk here alone so I can free myself

'Cause you were the needle inside my pillow
And you were the beetle inside my mouth
You were the laughing and you were the choking
You were the fun I should've done without
You were the fun I should've done without
