I got my headphones on
I am running real fast
I am just trying to find
A little bit of freedom
I got my headphones on
I am running real fast
I am just trying to find
A little bit of freedom
I am running down the road
I seen some times before
I guess is just a fiction
Of this place I am calling home
The faces they never seem to fade
The scenery I am slipping just remains the same
I am wondering if this world that we are living
Will rearrange
I am wondering if this world that we are living
Will ever get to see some change
So I kick the . as I run pass wishing that Time travel wasn't something about past time shadows
They electrify they tell me not to chase myself
And always to be satisfy . are radicals
Reality this other only dreamed off
Chorus
I got my headphones on
I am running real fast
I am just trying to find
A little bit of freedom
I got my headphones on
I am running real fast
I am just trying to find
A little bit of freedom
You can't capture me but you can fall .
Make a deal with your live but the hate to the rest
You . some shoes you ask for size 12 but they keep Giving you catch 22 make 2 former run achieving what you promise to become
. fighting the day you will never see the sun
If it's nothing else to lose
All we gotta do is treat each other equal
Chorus

I got my headphones on
I am running real fast
I am just trying to find
A little bit of freedom
I got my headphones on
I am running real fast
I am just trying to find
I am just trying to find
I am just trying to find
