Chorus:

It's popping off like a champagne bottle
So put your hands up
Your body's movin' so you know you got to Put your hands up
Cuz its goin' down, cuz its goin' down
Put your hands up
Cuz its goin' down, cuz its goin' down

Yo

We're in the backyard again
Livin' a lush life with like all my friends
And so I two step shuffle with the help Of boogie down music and it doesn't matter dancing by myself
Cuz the drinks all cold, the girls all rolled
And we got a few fans at our shows, they sing along Cmon, you could never call it wrong
That's why we put our hearts in the song
I see some women looking fly in the distance
They ask me why I'm grinning, and I give 'em my opinion
Listen, cuz life's all about what you do, not what you didn't
So go outside and start livin'!

Chorus:

It's popping off like a champagne bottle
So put your hands up
Your body's movin' so you know you got to Put your hands up
Cuz its goin' down, cuz its goin' down
Put your hands up
Cuz its goin' down, cuz its goin' down

Here's the scenario, Sublime's on the stereo Always there to let me know, that's where the lovin' is I gotta deck full of honeys and a sky full of nothing but some sweet blue nothingness
Gimme a look while we're all on the grass
With a big tall glass that just might make me fall on my ass

Second wind you can follow me blindly, come find me Cuz I be, where the sunshine be Where the sunshine be
On a mission spreading RAD LOVE visions
So listen or you're really gonna miss it
In life its what you do, not what you didn't
So go outside and start livin'!

[Chorus:]

Dance, dance, sugar baby show me your moves
I knew that you could shake it right when I saw you Spinnin' round, back and forth, grooving out
I'll put your hands up, I'll put your hands up, cuz it's going down

[Chorus:]
