Take me to the temple,
Paint it on the door.
Point me to the promise.
Ah, hallelujah on the dance floor

I might run away,
But you will always have my heart

Walk me to the water,
Crown me from your shore.
Girl from magdalena
Back for the Babylon Beat Encore

I might Run away,
But you will always have my heart

Always have my heart
Always and forever now
Always have my heart
Always and forever now

like a page lost to history, our love will last throughout the Centuries
pages and pages
thru ages and ages!

I might Run away
