I'm not so threatened by the things I didn't do
After all, my failings led me to you
Said you were leaving town
We see you stuck it out
Liars and change make everyone laugh out loud

Watch 'em all come runnin'
When you got somethin' they need
Watch 'em all come runnin'
Suddenly

I was so mad at you, you made me sweat it out
That's what it took to get you and you remind me
Nothing is more than this, better than where we are Better than you right here, right now with me

Watch 'em all come runnin'
When you got somethin' they need
Watch 'em all come runnin'
Suddenly

Suddenly, this time everyone will know who you are
