Autumn leaves fall outside her windowpane,
She wonders if she'll live to see them again.
She loves him but she knows "it can never be,
She wonders, "Will he still love me when I'm..."

6 feet underground,
Will you know where to find me?
Yesterday is dust and tomorrow won't come,
I want to see the sun
One more time before I go,
6 feet below.

Autumn rain falls upon his tear-soaked face,
He's racing time just to see her again.
He's running, he's scared, and he says "baby, wait for me,
You know that I will always love you, even..."

6 feet underground,
Don't you know that's where you'll find me?
Yesterday is gone but eternity will come.
Baby, I will be your sun,
And I'll never let you go,
6 feet below.

Always
Forever
We will be Together.
Always
Forever
We will be...

6 feet underground
Don't you know that's where you'll find us?
Yesterday is gone but eternity will come.
Baby, I will be your sun and I'll never let you go
6 feet below

6 feet underground
Don't you know that's where you'll find us?
Yesterday is gone but eternity will come.

Baby, I will be your sun and I'll never let you go
6 feet below
