Windsurfer

Windsurfer

All he wanted was to ride out on the wind

Windsurfer

to be one of the guys and to look good in her eyes

He practiced in his dreams

Trying to coast the waves

Most of the time he sailed alone

Endless summer days

Flying in the sim

He'd ride and wait for the wind

To take him home

Windsurfer

Windsurfer

Windsurfer

He said let's sail away together

She told him no no never no

Wind windsurfer

It was early one morning

On a lovely beach

He left a message and

He wrote it in the sand

Why do we always go for Something we can't reach?

Nobody ever really understands

Windsurfer

All he wanted to do

Was outrun the sun

Windsurfer

To take her in his arms

When the lonely days was done

Windsurfer
