Turn your head
And make your life in a shred.
I can feel it in your hat
Life spreads out for you, baby.
And there is no match.

Turn your head
And make your life in a shred.
I can feel it in you head.
Life spreads out for you, baby
And there is no match.

Have you listened to your consciouness?

Do I have to believe in you?
With your lies and fucking crying?
I won't give my hand for you.
No no.

Don't look at me.
I know that place that you choose wasn't made for me.
Don't look at me
No no
Don't look at me.
No no

No no.
